

Information for investors

1. Introduction

Luossavaara-Kiirunavaara AB (publ), abbreviated to LKAB (referred to here as “LKAB”, “we”, “us” or “our”) is the controller for the processing of your personal data. It is of the utmost importance to us that your privacy is protected and that the personal data collected is processed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council) (“GDPR”).

Here you will find information concerning how LKAB collects, processes and shares your personal data. Information is also provided about your rights in respect of LKAB’s processing of personal data. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact us via the contact details given below.

2. What personal data is processed?

LKAB collects and processes the following personal data about you:

Contact details (e.g. name, address, email, telephone number)

In general, LKAB collects personal data directly from you. In certain cases personal data may be processed that LKAB collects from other publicly available services or registers, for example from the Swedish Tax Agency or from other authorities and institutions.

3. For what purposes is personal data processed?

LKAB processes your personal data for administrative purposes relating to the relationship between you in your capacity as an investor and LKAB.

4. What is the legal basis for the processing of personal data?

Your personal data is processed on the basis of our legitimate interest in contacting you in your capacity as an investor. This means that LKAB is of the view that the processing of your personal data for this purpose outweighs the invasion of privacy to which you are exposed due to the processing. The result of this balancing test is based mainly on the fact that the processing of your personal data is as limited as possible.

5. How is personal data protected and who has access to it?

LKAB has taken appropriate technical and organisational security measures to protect personal data from loss, abuse, unauthorised access etc.

Only individuals at LKAB who need to process the personal data in accordance with the purpose stated above have access to your personal data. LKAB may transfer your personal data to other companies within the group where this is required for administrative purposes. LKAB may also transfer your personal data to third party suppliers that provide services to LKAB; primarily IT consultants that we engage from time to time for servicing and development of our systems.

6. How long is your personal data stored?

Your personal data is kept for as long as the processing fulfils its purpose, i.e. for as long as you are a current investor. The personal data may be kept for a longer period if this is required by law.

7. Your rights

You have various rights under GDPR.

Right to access to your personal data

You have the right to see your personal data and to receive information on how it is processed. You have the right to request an electronic copy of all personal data that we process about you in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format.

Right to object and right to rectification, erasure and restriction of processing

If the personal data processed by LKAB is inaccurate, incomplete or irrelevant you can request that it is corrected or erased. If you do not agree that LKAB has an overriding interest you may also object to the processing or request that this is restricted. For example, you can request that processing is restricted if you believe that the personal data processed is incorrect or if you believe that the personal data is no longer required for the purpose of the processing.

Right to withdraw consent

If you specifically give your consent to certain processing of personal data you always have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. You can do this by contacting LKAB using the contact details given in section 8.

Right to data portability

Where LKAB processes your personal data on the basis of your consent or because it is necessary for the performance of a contract with you, you have the right to request that a copy of the processed personal data that you provided to LKAB is sent to you in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format or to have it transferred to another controller.

Right to make a complaint

It is important to LKAB that you are comfortable with the processing of personal data that takes place. LKAB safeguards all investors' privacy and endeavours to treat all personal data with the greatest respect. However, if you feel that your personal data has been processed incorrectly please contact us (see contact details in section 8). You can also make a complaint about the processing of personal data to the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (IMY), which is the supervisory authority for the processing of personal data.

8. Contact details
